

Medical Devices in Portugal: Turning Knowledge into Products

Creating new business opportunities and improving healthcare by bringing together the R&D capacity, the expertise of the healthcare providers and the know-how of the medical device manufacturers.

Program

13.30 - Reception

14.00 – Opening Remarks and General Information

Olga S. Carneiro,
EDAM Coordinator / MIT-Portugal Program

14.10 – DACHOR – Multybody Dynamics and Control of Hybrid Active Orthoses

Miguel Silva,
Instituto Superior Técnico / MIT-Portugal Program

14.25 – New Technological Solutions for Smart Cardiovascular Medical Devices

Luis Rocha,
University of Minho / MIT-Portugal Program

14.40 – Wireless Patient Monitoring

Ricardo Simões,
Institute for Polymers and Composites / MIT-Portugal Program

14.55 – Discussion

15.10 – Coffee break

15.30 – Health Cluster Portugal (HCP) and Technology Transfer

Joaquim Cunha,
HCP, Executive Director

15.45 – Round Table on Technology Transfer

Moderator: Joaquim Cunha
António Soares , AGA, Business Development Manager
Joana Feijó , Critical Health, New Business/R&D Manager
Manuel Rito , Hospital Privado de Guimarães, Clinical Director
Pedro Barosa , Ceramed/Altakitin, CEO Altakitin
Victor Herdeiro , U.L.S. Matosinhos, Administrator
Olga S. Carneiro

17.20 – Closing Remarks

António M. Cunha,
University of Minho, Rector

Please register* until 17 June by e-mail:
info@healthportugal.com.

*Registration is free,
yet mandatory and limited!

Contacts:

Tel: 220 968 183
info@healthportugal.com
edam-mit@eng.uminho.pt

21 June 2010 | Centro Cultural Vila Flor, Guimarães